IV. Quarterly Public Forum with the Board

One of the Village Board's goals is to create more opportunities for public outreach. Aside from attending special events in the community, the Village Board schedules Quarterly Public Forums with the public on various topics. These forums are designed to be less formal than the business meetings of a regular or special meeting, and instead are designed as discussions that allow for the Board, staff and the public to interact and have a dialogue on a variety of topics. Last fall the Board held the first public forum on public safety.

This session is on Economic Development. Staff will lead a discussion on how we generally think about economic development.
