

2002 Historic Preservation Awards Oak Park Historic Preservation Commission

The following projects deserved special recognition as Preservation Award winners in recognition of National Historic Preservation Week, May 12-18, 2002:

339 North Oak Park Avenue

An appropriate restoration and adaptive reuse of the single family Hemingway birthplace residence to a house museum accessible to the general public; current owner The Ernest Hemingway Foundation.

450 Iowa Street

An impressive historic restoration of the Mary Greenlees Yerkes Residence designed by John Van Bergen; current owner John Thorpe.

615 Forest Avenue

A sensitive restoration and rehabilitation of a home by the owner, Rosalind Larsen.

2002 Historic Preservation Awards Oak Park Historic Preservation Commission

145 South Taylor Avenue

Interior Preservation Award for the period restoration of the interior; current owner Ronald Weslow.

700 Woodbine Avenue

A conversion and rehabilitation of a two story, two family flat to its original use as a single-family house; current owners J.A. and Lori Armour.

326 Home Avenue

A caring restoration and rehabilitation converting a two flat dwelling unit to its original use as a single-family residence; current owner J. Wesley Helms and Kathleen M. Spillane.

2002 Historic Preservation Awards Oak Park Historic Preservation Commission

The following projects deserved special recognition as Preservation Award winners in recognition of National Historic Preservation Week, May 12-18, 2002:

454 Iowa Street

An intelligent rehabilitation of the exterior using appropriate materials and techniques; current owner Marianne Nathan.

309 South Taylor Avenue

The rebuilding of former porch and repainting of the exterior; current owners Michelle and Gary Brandt.

2002 Historic Preservation Awards Oak Park Historic Preservation Commission

521 Linden Avenue

An elegant solarium family room alteration and addition to the existing residence with a masonry retaining wall elevated terrace; current owners Claudia Marciniak and Steven Puiszis.

642 North East Avenue

A good integration of contemporary accessibility equipment with the existing configuration of the single family residence; current owners Steven and Catherine Ellenbogen.

1101 Lake Street

The removal of inappropriate plywood-stone panels and the thoughtful detailing of a new masonry base to a major commercial building in the central business district; current owner Shaker Management Company.

