

JOIN US FOR A COMMUNITY Conversation

The Collaboration for Early Childhood, District 97 and the Oak Park Public Library invite you to a brief presentation and participate in a conversation about our shared aspirations for our youngest residents – children birth to kindergarten age.

Learn about the important role early development plays in a child's learning and success in life.

SPEAKER: Geoffrey A. Nagle, PhD.,
*President and Chief Executive Officer
Erikson Institute*

Learn about an exciting project launching this winter that will help answer the question

"How are our youngest children doing?"

SPEAKER: Jaclyn Vasquez MS,
*Associate Director of EDI
Erikson Institute*

Help shape our response to this question by participating in a conversation facilitated by David Seleb, Executive Director of the Oak Park Public Library.

Thursday, November 16, 2017

7:00 - 9:00 pm

Maze Branch Library, 845 Gunderson Avenue

Collaboration for Early Childhood

Erikson
Institute